President's Corner

Everyone loves the walks/community tours that Roy Martins leads for the club. He knows so much about San Diego you would think he grew up here. Roy was born and raised in the Queens borough of New York City. His family moved to New Hyde Park on Long Island where Roy attended Sewanhaka High School. Roy graduated from Lehigh University with a BS in Mechanical Engineering and then Rutgers University with a BA in Business Administration.

Roy was an officer in the Army Transportation Corp and received a Commendation Medal. He moved to California when he was assigned to Fort Mason in San Francisco. After leaving the army, Roy moved back east to New Jersey and joined Johnson & Johnson where he says he "made Band-Aids and taught manufacturing management". He also raised four children.

Roy left Johnson & Johnson and moved back to California, this time to Poway; near where his sister was living. In San Diego he worked manufacturing management jobs in the day and taught factory management certification classes at night. He also consulted on computerized manufacturing control. It was at this time that he was introduced to the Torrey Pines Ski Club.

Roy met his current wife, Vonnice Varner, at the Del Mar Race Track when they were both attending a ski club event. Roy says that Vonnice "has exposed me to the joys of travel" and for several years they divided their time between homes in Pacific Beach and Victoria, Canada.

Currently Roy and Vonnice live in Carlsbad. Many remember the great TPSC Christmas party they hosted last year. Roy says he lives by the motto "Three Fun Things each Day" and he loves to celebrate his birthday. He says, "Torrey Pines members are always ready to help me do both."

"My current passion is leading walks/tours for the club. The support has been wonderful and makes me want to make the walks the best that they can be."

Join us on Saturday, December 12 when Roy will lead his annual holiday walk. He tells me that this one will be different from past years. I can't wait.

Pasadena Outing

The trip to Pasadena was enjoyed by 45 folks including six members of other San Diego ski clubs. The trip went very smoothly and everyone enjoyed their light breakfast and afternoon snacks on the way home. A few raffles and other activities made the ride go very quickly. The weather was picture perfect. Ten of us went to the Huntington Library and Gardens and the other 35 went to the JPL after having lunch in Old Town Pasadena. The tour guide at JPL was excellent and everyone really enjoyed the very informative tour. Watch for possible new tours in the future.
