46th ANNIVERSARY
1962-2008

President's Corner

The Torrey Pines Board of Directors has chosen Rusty Etzel to represent us as Woman of the Year for the '08-'09 season. Rusty has served the club in many capacities since she joined the club in 1980. Currently, Rusty is serving as San Diego Council of Ski Clubs Secretary.

Rusty was born and lived in New York City until the age of 10. Then she moved with her family to a dairy farm in Jefferson, NY, a remote area in the northern Catskill Mountains. Rusty remembers that it was three miles to a paved road. She says that this was the first time she strapped on a pair of skis. And, she really means "strapped on". Rusty says they literally strapped the skis to their boots and went down the hill. She had no idea that she should turn to check her speed. But, she skied that way happily for six winters and remembers feeling the joy of speed and the wind in her face.

Rusty attended Jefferson Central, a K-12 rural school, where there were less than 10 students in her class. At school she played the clarinet and tenor sax, sang in the school choir, played basketball, ran track, and was a cheerleader.

When Rusty was 16, her family left the snow and skis behind and moved to San Diego. Rusty attended Pt. Loma High for 2 months before her family settled in Chula Vista where her mother started La Bella Pizza Garden, an Italian restaurant which still thrives today. Rusty worked there on weekends until she was graduated from Chula Vista High. After graduation, Rusty went to work for Pacific Bell. Eventually, she met and married Tom McDonald, a Navy guy, and moved with him as the Navy relocated him to various locales, the most memorable being Honolulu.

Rusty's second job was with Bank of America. She stayed with them off and on for 12 years while raising three children. When she and Tom parted, Rusty enrolled in Coleman College, went on to Grossmont College, and, in 1984, finished at San Diego State University with a BS in Business Management. By then she had worked at University Hospital (now UCSD Medical Center) as a computer programmer and was in continuing health care systems development for Scripps Clinic and Research. She had also married Clifford Etzel, become widowed, joined Torrey Pines Ski Club, and took up skiing again, this time with the latest equipment.

Rusty has held an amazing number of offices for Torrey Pines: Reception Chair, Assistant Newsletter Editor, Newsletter Editor (for 3 Years), Recording Secretary, Assistant Treasurer, President and Past President (two separate times), San Diego Council Representative, Meetings Chair, and Recording Secretary. She has led club ski trips to Mammoth, Heavenly, Lake Tahoe, Snowbird, Vail, and Aspen. She also led the Saguaro Lake Tubing Trip six times, a trip to Pageant of the Masters, any many other activities. Members still talk about her 1984 "Graduation" bike ride. Rusty's mom wanted to throw a party for her. So Rusty organized a 20-mile ride from Chula Vista to Otay Lakes and back that ended at her mother's restaurant. Thirty people feasted on her family's favorite dishes.

TPSC MAN and WOMAN of the YEAR

Fred Blecksmith and Rusty Etzel have been selected to represent Torrey Pines Ski Club as our Man and Woman of the Year for the '08-'09 ski season. They will be attending the Snowball Gala on Saturday, November 8 at the Marriott Courtyard, Liberty Station where they will compete against the men and women representing other ski clubs for the honor of San Diego Ski Club Council's Man and Woman of the Year. This award represents volunteerism in organized skiing and I'm sure that you will agree that Fred and Rusty are very worthy candidates. Rusty has an incredible list of offices and accomplishments for both Torrey Pines and the SDCSC. Check the "President's Corner" to read more about Rusty. Fred has been in the club since its beginning and on the Board of Directors for most of that time. Currently he is our Corporate Secretary. I will try to catch up with Fred for next month's "President's Corner".

Meanwhile, be sure to get your tickets for the Snowball Gala if you haven't already. More information can be found on our website <http://www.tpscscd.org/>, on the activities page of the council website <http://www.skisandiego.org/> or in our newsletter.

The history ranges from the days of the Wright Brother's, World War I, World War II, the advent of the commercial airline and space travel. Please join me on the 28th and see it all for your self. There have been changes so even if you have visited before it is well worth a return. Free admission for San Diego residents on this date, (bring proof.) There is an additional charge if one wishes to attend the Star Wars Feature. Lunch follows. PLEASE RSVP.

Catalina Trip Roundup

What a great trip!" "Wonderful Hotel!" "Let's do it again!" were some of the oft-repeated comments heard throughout our three-day holiday on the island. Such a positive and fun-loving group really showed that Torrey Pines still has the spirit that has made the club so popular. Activities of bocce ball, miniature golf, biking (okay, only Shannon), touring and lots of eating and walking filled the days and nights. Thanks again everyone.

6:00 Social/Announcements ♦ 7:00 ANNUAL SKI FASHION SHOW

Carolyn Delahanty, Ranchcraft and our terrific models bring you the new fashions to wear on the slopes this year. Ranchcraft has the ultimate in current fashions whether for Downhill, Cross Country or Snowboarding. (You may even find something for the chilly winter nights in San Diego.)

In addition, we will be having a food drive for Operation Homefront. Operation Homefront uses the donations received to provide emergency support to our troops, to the families they leave behind, and to wounded warriors when they return home. Non-perishable food items are needed such as: canned meats, canned fruit, cereal, spaghetti sauce, dry pasta, Top Ramen/Cup-O-Noodles, Macaroni & Cheese, boxed mashed potatoes, jello/puddings, peanut butter, canned pasta, powdered juice mix, and pancake mix. Also, baby items are needed such as: diapers (all sizes N-5), baby wipes, baby lotions, powders, shampoos, soap, bottles, nail clippers, and baby blankets

Note: Anyone bringing a donation will receive a ticket for a drawing.

Join us early for the great Happy Hour prices on drinks and munchies and then enjoy the show
